2) The paragraphs of the story about ARACHNE have been jumbled up. Put them in the right order:

A: "You are a great weaver. Even I don't have your magic skills," said Athena.

B: "But your pride is greater than your weaving skills and that is truly bad."

C: As Arachne was listening to Athena's words, she was trembling with fear. Then, Athena turned Arachne into a spider.

D: "I told you so," answered Arachne proudly.

E: Since then, Arachne can be found in the corners of houses, weaving her webs.

F: While Arachne and Athena were weaving, spectators admired their work. They continued working for hours. Finally, Athena stopped to look at Arachne's work.

G: Arachne was a woman who was well-known for her beautiful tapestries. Athena, the goddess, also wove well. Arachne often showed off her skills saying that she was the best weaver in the world. Athena heard of this and challenged her to a weaving competition.
